Correspondence of the Charleston Mercury.

FROM EUROPE.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 2.

The steamship America has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 20th December. The sales of Cotton for the week ending the 13th were 25,000 bales, of which speculators took 6000 and Exporters 2000. Prices had declined 1-8d: Fair Orleans, 5 1-8; Middling, 4 3-4 a 4 7-8; Middling Upland, 4 1-2 a 4 5-8. Trade in the Manufacturing Districts was unchanged. France is tranquil.

The Madrid Gazette contains an official document from the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in reply to the note of Mr. Webster, in which he expresses satisfaction at the tone of the note, and liberates all the American prisoners taken in the late Lopez expedition. La Borda, the Spanish Consul, is about leaving for New Orleans, via Havana.

The Frankfurt Diet, at the instigation of Austria, has resolved to address a diplomatic note to the English government, requesting the surrender of the political refugees residing in England.

LATER.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 3.

The steamship Franklin has arrived at New York with Liverpool dates to the 22d December. The sales of Cotton on the 20th were 5000 bales, at unchanged prices.

Intelligence from Paris was received up to Sunday. The voting continued until late in the evening, and more than one hundred thousand votes were polled in the city and the election passed off in perfect tranquillity.

ATTEMPT TO ARREST MCCREARY.—We learn by a report from Lancaster county that a bold attempt was made there lately to arrest Thomas McCreary, a citizen of this town, who has become somewhat notorious by his sorties into Pennsylvania, to arrest fugitive slaves. He is the same man who was abusively alluded to by Mr. Reed during the Hanway trial in Philadelphia, as McCreary; we understand that Reed was entirely wrong in that matter, and gave a false impression of the case. But to the report. McC. is the contractor to carry mails between Elkton and Chesnut Level, in Pa. Notwithstanding he knows the authorities of that State are on the look out for him, he occasionally carries the mail himself, and lately went up three times in succession. One night while at one of his stopping places, seven or eight men came in, one of whom accosted him and asked him if he was the mail contractor. "Yes," said he. "What is your name?" "McCreary," "I have a warrant for you." "You had as well put that in your pocket." "I intend to arrest you," said his interrogator. "With that Mr. C. snatched out a bowie knife and told him he would split him down on the spot if he dared advance. At that moment another of the party advanced, with a chair ex- to ward off the knife; McC. instantly drew a revolver with his left hand and drove a ball through the bottom of the chair, which barely missed his second assailant. In a twinkling they all made out of the house, and McC. going out the back way, came off to Maryland. We rather suppose they will let him alone hereafter, for they may rest assured he will protect the U. S. Mail which he has contracted safely to carry.

Cecil (Md.) Whig. Dec. 27.

Let all men avoid rash speaking. They that speak without care, often remember their own words afterwards with sorrow; those that expect peace and safety, are to restrain their tongues with a bridle.

DIED.—On Friday morning last, A. E. Allen, Esq., of this town, aged about forty-four years.
